Baia's Wine
Tsolikouri

The Facts

COUNTRY: Georgia
REGION: Imereti

The Story

Baia Abuladze is a young woman, who together with her sister Gvanca Abuladze and their family in Obcha, Imereti in the west of Georgia, are bringing new life and energy to a region with a storied history but whose winemaking traditions had suffered greatly during communist times. Baia began studying viticulture and winemaking studying from her grandfather as a little girl. Starting in 2015 Baia, who was then 22 years old decided to take bring new life to the estate and family wine cellar. With the help of some woman winemaker specific grants she procured the necessary tools to bottle their first vintage in 2015 comprising of 5,000 bottles. Over the years Baia and Gvanca have been making unique woman made wines with a purpose of preserving and being a part of the 8,000yr tradition.

The Adjectives

OVERALL: Refreshing & Mineral
AROMAS / FLAVORS: Honey, citrus, cider
MOUTHFEEL: Crisp & Bright

The Selling Points

PAIRINGS: Enjoy with barramundi, chicken dishes

Copyright 2026 by Serendipity Wines www.SerendipityWines.com UPC: 4 860113 080124