THE STORY

Bodegas Hermanos del Villar - Oro de Castilla is a family-owned winery located in Rueda, with a strong focus on crafting exceptionally high-quality wines. Its origins trace back to 1955 when Pablo del Villar Escudero arrived in Rueda, marking the inception of the del Villar family's engagement in the region. Later, between 1989 and 1990, the first vineyards were planted with the Verdejo, Sauvignon Blanc, and Tempranillo varieties.

PHILOSOPHY: The winery's objective has always been to pursue the ideal location of its vineyards to maximize the quality of the grapes. Vineyard management is a fundamental aspect of the winery so they may produce wines of high quality.
